A Generational Review

This review is from a series of live talks given by The Master Teacher of A Course In Miracles and is being presented now to help assist and accelerate the individual awakening process that is occurring in us and in all the world.

One Generation Is All Generations

Introducing A Course In Miracles to the one and only generation that ever was or ever could be.

We but undertake a journey that is over. Yet it seems to have a future still unknown to us. Time is a trick, a sleight of hand, a vast illusion in which figures come and go as if by magic. Yet there is a plan behind appearances that does not change. The script is written. When experience will come to end your doubting has been set. For we but see the journey from the point at which it ended, looking back on it, imagining we make it once again; reviewing mentally what has gone by.

It's important to remember a few things about miracles as you enter this transverse.

- A miracle is a correction introduced into false thinking by me. It acts as a catalyst, breaking up erroneous perception and reorganizing it properly. This places you under the Atonement principle, where perception is healed. Until this has occurred, knowledge of the Divine Order is impossible.
- Miracles transcend the body. They are sudden shifts into invisibility, away from the bodily level. That is why they heal.
- Miracles enable you to heal the sick and raise the dead because you made sickness and death yourself, and can therefore abolish both. You are a miracle, capable of creating in the likeness of your Creator. Everything else is your own nightmare, and does not exist. Only the creations of light are real.
- The miracle is a learning device that lessens the need for time. It establishes an out-of-pattern time interval not under the usual laws of time. In this sense it is timeless.
- The miracle is the only device at your immediate disposal for controlling time. Only revelation transcends it, having nothing to do with time at all.
- The miracle makes no distinction among degrees of misperception. It is a device for perception-correction, effective quite apart from either the degree or the direction of the error. This is its true indiscriminateness.
- Miracles occur naturally as expressions of love. The real miracle is the love that inspires them. In this sense everything that comes from love is a miracle.

The Search For Eternal Joy And Happiness

Accepting A Course In Miracles, Communicating With God

Strange as it may seem, it is necessary that I make my message complicated in some regards, or the fractured imagery you call self -in your dream- could not hear me at all. Since you are devious by your own conception we must lead you to the light of truth by your own devious route.

Because of the manner in which you think, you are inevitably perplexed by simplicity. The simpler it becomes, the more perplexing. You end up trying to express the simple truth in very complicated fashions.

Total truth is incomprehensible to you by the very nature of its simplicity. Nothing is more difficult for your self-constructed identity than the idea of a complete wholeness or singularity that includes your thoughts about it. Truth and nothing else is true. When you awaken from this dream you will laugh out loud at the idea of separate or relative truths.

Come then and reason with me. I awaken you now as you instructed me long ago, when time began and ended.

Taking The Next Step

I have the problem, now I have the solution. Cause and effect are not apart.

Would you dare to begin to actually take a look at this or is it too scary? Too scary for you? Would you dare to simply say, 'I've decided that I'm going to be home with God forever instead of the st I'm in.' And most particularly that, 'I don't have to die to get there.' And that dying is not going to serve any frickin' purpose no matter what you do. You can't get there by dying.

I know that the minister is going to tell you that Jesus teaches you get there by dying. Jesus teaches you get there by living! Not by dying. There is no death. What the hell would death prove? 'Don't I have to suffer it, in order to know that I'm alive?' Why? Why? You don't answer me. It's like your eyes glaze over. It's funny. There's no reason; you're the one who said, 'There's a God who loves me eternally.' At least you think so.

I think it's a good idea. I think it makes more sense than anything I could possibly think of. That if there is a consciousness, that it's whole and loving and that there really isn't a conflict. That's reasonable. You have every right to ask, 'What the hell am I doing here?'

The question is, will you take the next step? You're the cause of it. I have the problem don't I, now I got the solution. I used to teach this in the 12-Step program. The problem and the solution are in me, not out there.

Experiencing Perfect Artistry In The Act Of Giving

I'm not a body. I am free.

Gender is an astonishing thing, isn't it? Most associations who we run into, the gender is contained in one association. Part of the longevity problem you have in this spectrum of association, in this galaxy, is you separated the gender. Separating gender retains the potential. Can you hear me? Can you guys hear me? If you separate the gender you can keep the potential in a location, female, and you can hold it in a location and use it until you use it up, and that way, you can sustain it. Actually it's not true. There isn't any such thing as potential. You are both. You are all of that.

Boy, I think the females would want to hear this message. You look at what's happened in this whole... by separating the gender, they could reduce it to nothing but some sort of chattel. It's just absurd, it's absolutely absurd. So you stand up and demonstrate your maleness to overcome your chattelness and that's equally absurd. It makes absolutely no sense. Instead of standing up and saying, 'I am what I am.' The reason you don't is because you like the idea of your own chattelism, because you are a part of an exchange modality. I don't know if you hear me, I can give you a big talk on this.

The value is in how many wives you've got as a male, how much you can control of potential, how much god exercising your male has over the female. That's absurd. Shame on you for being female. Why would you want to be? You are as God created you, perfect in wholeness. There's no such thing as potential. All your potential can do is verify your offspring, which would be just as dead as you are, and just as meaningless as you could possibly be. They have no purpose but to share your own death. That too tough for you? You'll protect them in every way you can and by their protection guarantee their own unreality with yours.

Jesus in the Course is a lot tougher than I am with this. Some of the sentences in there are just... everything is an attack on God here. But you can't attack God, because he won't respond, so you set up a response to your own attack and you live within your own attack and defense.

I want your creative minds and I love the activity of your mind in the determination to gratify your own self. I don't want to take that away from you. Whether that caused you to sedate, for example. A lot of us, being unable to stand our own mind association, sedated ourselves. I was a great sedater. Why? I couldn't stand my own mind.

Every time you presented us with a problem, a lot of you are like that, you immediately saw it in a broader range than the solution that was offered you. And you would present a solution and everyone would say to you, 'That has nothing to do with the problem.' It does in your mind. Because your mind was able to look at the problem in a different way.

That's called creative thinking. That will make you head of the corporation just as well. The question is not that, the question is whether you're going to be happy being head of the corporation. I wasn't. What would be easier than taking advantage, with my mind, of associations who don't know how to think the way I think. But the result of that was still going to be me in my own limitation. That's what causes sedation for many, many of us. Any goal that you accomplished never made you happy.

Waking Up In Heaven

Singing the simple song of freedom.

The call to awaken this association came. It's called a call to awaken. It's what I'm doing. A Course In Miracles is not scheduled for two more millenniums, but what the st are two more millenniums. The requirement is you, not two more millenniums. So we decide to speed it up and the more we speed it up, the more crappy the world gets. Can you hear me? Oh sure, it's called Armageddon.

The more determined you are to continue in the plane, if there are no big wars you begin to inflict pain on each other. You hear me? And you call it being abused by your parents. That's just bullst. Pardon me. You're determined to be abused by something. If the Australians aren't abused by the Japs or the Americans, you find your own family to abuse you. You can bring up memories of how your father molested... what kind of nonsense is that. 'Well isn't it true that he did it?' Of course it's true, big deal. What do you want me to do about it? You want to hold a grievance of yourself. Why? Of course you do, because you are the grievance. If nobody abuses you, you can't be here.

Beware of being unjustly treated. Why? It's impossible. 'No it is not, I'm unjustly treated all the time.' Yeah, but your impossible. There's no such thing as you that is abused. You don't like that. You want to believe that somehow you control your own abuse. What is abused is nothing. What defends itself is attacked by itself.

Let Go And Let God

The singular reason and passion of heart and mind.

I promise you that when that bell rings you will begin to do the things that you're supposed to do in your 'mission impossible.' And I'm telling you, the bell is ringing. Now, you will begin to do things that you had no idea that you were going to do, and they may seem foolish, and they may be ridiculous, but you have no alternative but to do them simply because it's time to do it.

When it begins to happen to you, you know it. Because, why? You've got a purpose! You've got a mission that's absolutely impossible; that's what makes it so joyous! It's impossible that it's going to work. This is the whole Course In Miracles. It requires faith and surrender.

I know that you suspect somewhere that I have a reason in telling you this. My reason for telling you this is because it's what I am. Teachers of God; that's what we are or we're nothing. I mean literally, a human is nothing except in his awakening process. Except in his communication with God he is literally nothing.

LESSON 79

Let Me Recognize The Problem So It Can Be Solved.

A problem cannot be solved if you do not know what it is. Even if it is really solved already you will still have the problem, because you will not recognize that it has been solved. This is the situation of the world. The problem of separation, which is really the only problem, has already been solved. Yet the solution is not recognized because the problem is not recognized.

Everyone in this world seems to have his own special problems. Yet they are all the same, and must be recognized as one if the one solution that solves them all is to be accepted. Who can see that a problem has been solved if he thinks the problem is something else? Even if he is given the answer, he cannot see its relevance.

That is the position in which you find yourself now. You have the answer, but you are still uncertain about what the problem is. A long series of different problems seems to confront you, and as one is settled the next one and the next arise. There seems to be no end to them. There is no time in which you feel completely free of problems and at peace.

The temptation to regard problems as many is the temptation to keep the problem of separation unsolved. The world seems to present you with a vast number of problems, each requiring a different answer. This perception places you in a position in which your problem-solving must be inadequate, and failure is inevitable.

No one could solve all the problems the world appears to hold. They seem to be on so many levels, in such varying forms and with such varied content, that they confront you with an impossible situation. Dismay and depression are inevitable as you regard them. Some spring up unexpectedly, just as you think you have resolved the previous ones. Others remain unsolved under a cloud of denial, and rise to haunt you from time to time, only to be hidden again but still unsolved.

All this complexity is but a desperate attempt not to recognize the problem, and therefore not to let it be resolved. If you could recognize that your only problem is separation, no matter what form it takes, you could accept the answer because you would see its relevance. Perceiving the underlying constancy in all the problems that seem to confront you, you would understand that you have the means to solve them all. And you would use the means, because you recognize the problem.

In our longer practice periods today we will ask what the problem is, and what is the answer to it. We will not assume that we already know. We will try to free our minds of all the many different kinds of problems we think we have. We will try to realize that we have only one problem, which we have failed to recognize. We will ask what it is, and wait for the answer. We will be told. Then we will ask for the solution to it. And we will be told.

The exercises for today will be successful to the extent to which you do not insist on defining the problem. Perhaps you will not succeed in letting all your preconceived notions go, but that is not necessary. All that is necessary is to entertain some doubt about the reality of your version of what your problems are. You are trying to recognize that you have been given the answer by recognizing the problem, so that the problem and the answer can be brought together and you can be at peace.

The shorter practice periods for today will not be set by time, but by need. You will see many problems today, each one calling for an answer. Our efforts will be directed toward recognizing that there is only one problem and one answer. In this recognition are all problems resolved. In this recognition there is peace.

Be not deceived by the form of problems today. Whenever any difficulty seems to rise, tell yourself quickly:

Let me recognize this problem so it can be solved.

Then try to suspend all judgment about what the problem is. If possible, close your eyes for a moment and ask what it is. You will be heard and you will be answered.

LESSON 80

Let Me Recognize My Problems Have Been Solved.

If you are willing to recognize your problems, you will recognize that you have no problems. Your one central problem has been answered, and you have no other. Therefore, you must be at peace. Salvation thus depends on recognizing this one problem, and understanding that it has been solved. One problem, one solution. Salvation is accomplished. Freedom from conflict has been given you. Accept that fact, and you are ready to take your rightful place in God's plan for salvation.

Your only problem has been solved! Repeat this over and over to yourself today, with gratitude and conviction. You have recognized your only problem, opening the way for the Holy Spirit to give you God's answer. You have laid deception aside, and seen the light of truth. You have accepted salvation for yourself by bringing the problem to the answer. And you can recognize the answer, because the problem has been identified.

You are entitled to peace today. A problem that has been resolved cannot trouble you. Only be certain you do not forget that all problems are the same. Their many forms will not deceive you while you remember this. One problem, one solution. Accept the peace this simple statement brings.

In our longer practice periods today, we will claim the peace that must be ours when the problem and the answer have been brought together. The problem must be gone, because God's answer cannot fail. Having recognized one, you have recognized the other. The solution is inherent in the problem. You are answered, and have accepted the answer. You are saved.

Now let the peace that your acceptance brings be given you. Close your eyes, and receive your reward. Recognize that your problems have been solved. Recognize that you are out of conflict; free and at peace. Above all, remember that you have one problem, and that the problem has one solution. It is in this that the simplicity of salvation lies. It is because of this that it is guaranteed to work.

Assure yourself often today that your problems have been solved. Repeat the idea with deep conviction, as frequently as possible. And be particularly sure to apply the idea for today to any specific problem that may arise. Say quickly:

Let me recognize this problem has been solved.

Let us be determined not to collect grievances today. Let us be determined to be free of problems that do not exist. The means is simple honesty. Do not deceive yourself about what the problem is, and you must recognize it has been solved.
